

Sunday Night
7 o'clock
Oct. 19, 1969

Dear Jimmy,

Thanks for calling Sat. Night. It always is so nice talking to you.
I had a good dinner for Moosehead, a chicken casserole recipe Mary had given me. We lost a dollar to Ruth and Milt.

We went to Exumelaw today and stopped at the hospital to see Uncle Joe. He is much better, thank goodness. We then went up to the cabin. Janice and Art and their baby were there, Cully and Gillian and Gail and Guff, and of course Ruthie and Jack and Scott and Leslie.

Dad got back from Las Vegas Friday Night. Roy went with him and Roy lost his brief case with 150 dollars in chips that Phil had given him to cash in. He left his brief case on the sidewalk while waiting for the cab from the airport

Aunt Stella will be getting back from Reno this afternoon. She was hoping to win alot of money so she could give it to Uncle Jim to help toward his hospital expenses.

Tuesday I am going to play bridge and Thursday I am going to see Bradley and Lynne. I should stay home all of the time and just study Swedish.

Anytime you feel like bringing some one home with you its fine with me.

Love,
Mom.